

News of Anderson County

Gathered for The Intelligencer By Its Active Correspondents In All Corners of This Splendid Old County

LEBANON SCHOOL CLOSED YESTERDAY

IS A CREDIT TO THE WHOLE OF ANDERSON COUNTY

GREAT COMMUNITY

The Closing Exercises Were Largely Attended—Honor Rolls and Awards

Lebanon High School closed its session for 1914, with graduating exercises last night at the Lebanon School grounds. These exercises concluded a program which lasted several days, beginning last Friday evening with a fair drill and a play, "Down in Dixie." All the exercises have been well attended and the pupils have all performed their parts with skill and credit to themselves and to the school.

Lebanon School Park is a beautiful spot in close proximity to Lebanon spring, which is a spring of clear, sparkling cold water. A stand has been erected and many exercises for the community are held here from time to time. The community spirit has thus been fostered and the people are pulling together for the development of those things which will mean great progress. In none of them is this more noticeably than in the support given the High School. This is the only rural high school in the county and had an enrollment in the high school department this term of 41. For the next term there will be an enrollment of 43. The total enrollment for this term was 165 pupils giving 25 per cent of the total number in the high school.

At the conclusion of the declamation contest yesterday Prof. Coleman made some very interesting announcements of the work done during the year. He announced that one pupil had not missed a day from school for four years, Master Josh Smith. Josh was called for and when he came on the platform was roundly applauded.

The following is the honor roll as announced by Prof. Coleman:

Tenth Grade—Fred Harris, first; Ruth Webb, second.

Ninth Grade—Max Welborn, first; Roy Craig, second.

Eighth Grade—Tom Massey, first; Florida Welborn, second.

Seventh Grade—Ada Wilson, first; Heba McAlister, second.

Sixth Grade—Paul Robbins, first; Annie Belle Harris, second.

Fifth Grade—Ellen Hunslett, first; Ruth Richardson, second.

Fourth Grade—Gladys Moore, first; Joe Wilson, second.

Third Grade—Mae Martin, first; Anoska Massey and Ruby Harris, tied, each having an average for the year of 95 per cent.

Second Grade—Lillie Watkins, first; Henry Martin, second.

First Grade—Mel Welborn, first; Sloan Martin, second.

The following pupils were absent eight days or less during the year: Edith Hiteinson, Lois Richardson, Faith Martin, Louise Martin, Mae Martin, Nancy Breazeale, Roy Craig, Made-Hue Smith, Ernest Hides, Josh Smith, Helen Smith, Ruth Richardson, Ellen Hunslett, Heba Richardson, Harold Copeland, Gladys Moore.

Miss Alice Massey won.

The declamation contest held Monday morning was especially good. The six young ladies who competed are all splendid declaimers, and the judges had some trouble in deciding the winner. Miss Alice Massey was finally declared the winner and was presented with the medal which was given by the Golden Rod Literary Society of the school. The presentation was made at the night session.

Three pupils finished the 10th grade and were awarded certificates at the graduation exercises last night. They are William Fred Harris, Vera Corrine Harris and Annie Ruth Webb.

The following is the program for the commencement exercises:

Friday Evening.
FAN DRILL
A PLAY—"Down in Dixie."
Cast of Characters.

Col. Marvay... Fred Harris
Of The Federal Army
George Washington Bangs,
Malcolm Dueworth
A Herald Reporter.
Major Bradley... Guy Harris
Of The Confederate Army.
Corp. Hoolligan... Roy Craig
A "True-Blue" Vet.
Hon. C. J. Dusenberry Arah Copeland
A Member of Congress.
Hozekiah Sniffins... Wade Robbins
A Degenerate Yankee.
Uncle Mosley... Jas. Moore
A Faithful Slave.
Brilling... Max Welborn
Bradley's Henchman.
Helen Trevoir... Vera Harris
A Southern Heiress.
Molly Martin... Ruth Webb
Helen's Lively Friend.
Mrs. Dusenberry... Mildred Smith
A Business Woman.
Susannah... Alice Massey
"Jis A Black Nigger"
Music by the Jolly Band.
Sunday Morning.
Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers."
By School
Hymn—"Holy, Holy, Holy"
Scripture Reading and Prayer.
Chf D. Coleman

Special Solo
Baccalaureate Address—Prof. Mark Bradley of Clemson College.
Hymn—"Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me"
Benediction.

Prof. Bradley's address was a gem. He chose for his subject "The Making of a Man" and this was developed in a highly entertaining and instructive manner.

Monday Morning.
Declamation Contest for Golden Rod Literary Society Medal.

Music.
Debutante... Lois Richardson
Anna's Trip in Court... Louise Martin
Voice from a Far Away Country.
Nancy Breazeale

A Roman Sentinel... Albee Wilson
The Sioux Chief's Daughter... Florida Welborn
Just as the Moon Eases—Winner... Alice Massey

Music.
Report of School and Giving of Promotion Cards.
Report of Judges.

Monday Evening.
GRADUATING EXERCISES

Chorus.
Valedictory... William Fred Harris
Class Historian.
Vera Corrine Harris
Class Prophet... Annie Ruth Webb
Chorus.

Commencement Address.
Rev. E. V. Babb

Awarding of Medals.
Awarding of Diplomas.
Chorus.

The class colors are white and gold; the class motto, the daisy; motto, "Honor Lies in Honest Toil."
The faculty for this term has been Prof. C. D. Coleman, principal, Misses Ray Masters, Carrie Howell, May Faust.

W. W. S.

NEAL'S CREEK NEWS

Belton, June 1.—Miss Mamie Cobb has returned from Toxaway, where she spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Godfrey.

Miss Irene Geer has returned from Dayton, Va., where she has been studying music.

Dr. Clarence Elgin of Alabama is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elgin.

Miss Berger, lady of missionary under the State Board, and who lives at Anderson, was the guest of Mrs. Charles Cobb Saturday and Sunday. She addressed the Neal's Creek B. Y. P. U. Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Frank Elgin and his sister Miss Aviee, left Saturday morning to visit relatives near Due West.

Miss Mallie Haynie visited her sister, Mrs. J. T. Mann, last week.

Prayed for Rain.

At the suggestion of Pastor Hiott, prayer was offered for rain here Sunday. Pastor Hiott, while believing that nature has fixed laws, declares in substance that God is Lord of nature, and that we should pray in faith for that which we need, whether temporal or spiritual blessings, provided we will use these temporal blessings for God's glory. Let all who really desire rain, and who are willing to use what God gives them for His glory pray, believing and God will hear these prayers, and answer for our good.

Mr. Frank Elgin, who has been attending school at Lynchburg, Va., is home for the summer.

THE MARKETS

MARKET SUMMARY
Monday, June 1.

New York Market.
Opened Closed
July... 13.20 13.36
October... 12.81 12.05
December... 12.81 12.05
Spots 13.75.

Cotton Seed Oil.
June... 7.14 7.19
July... 7.19 7.22
August... 7.33 7.35
September... 7.40 7.41

Holiday in Liverpool.

New Orleans Cotton.
Cotton futures steady, closing: July 13.62; August 13.49; October 13.93; December 12.92; January 12.93; March 13.02.

Chicago F. and C.
Chicago, June 1.—With harvest only a week away in Kansas and with a prospect of the state yielding a magnificent crop of 180,000,000 bushels, bears had the advantage today in the wheat pit. Prices closed heavy and lower all around. Corn wound up 1-2 a 5-8 above Saturday night, ounces varying from a shade off to 1-4 advance, and provisions at a gain of 2-12 to 10 a 1-2.

Stocks and Bonds.
New York, June 1.—Missouri Pacific hung like a cloud over today's dull and uneven stock market. This being the final day for action regarding the $25,000,000 note extension plan, unusual interest attached to the situation because of its relation to other properties similarly involved.

The stock fluctuated feverishly and the four per cent bonds were strong but the balance of the list moved sluggishly within narrow limits.

Atlanta, June 1.—Rain fell here today ending a drouth period of twenty four days, which equals the record time without precipitation in this section of Georgia. The downfall lasted less than an hour, however, and weather bureau officials said tonight that much more moisture was needed to benefit crops.

COUNTY CIRCUS WILL BEGIN ON AUGUST 8

ELEVEN SPEAKING DATES FIXED BY COMMITTEE

THREE NEW CLUBS

Anderson's Democrats Have Arranged Campaign Party's Itinerary and Placed Assessments

The Anderson County Executive Committee met in the court house here yesterday at noon. The two principal affairs attended to at this session were the fixing of the assessments on candidates for county offices and the arranging of the assessments for those in the coming campaign. The assessments were increased a little in some cases and lowered in others, while the county campaign was cut down somewhat from former years, there being only 11 speaking dates this year.

The meeting was called to order yesterday by S. Dean Pearman, chairman, promptly at 12 o'clock and the list of clubs read. They were responded to by the delegates and the following were present:

Anderson, Ward 1—W. H. Shearer.
Ward 2—J. D. East.
Ward 3—B. F. Wilson.
Ward 4—G. P. Browne.
Ward 6—L. L. Rice.
Belton 1 and 2—J. C. Green.
Belton 3—J. W. Campbell.
Broadway—T. W. McCarley.
Bowling Green—R. H. Breazeale.
Brushy Creek—B. F. Wigington.
Concrete—H. F. Celey.
Cedar Grove—J. M. Holliday.
Corner—Joe Sheard.
Five Forks—C. M. Robbins.
Fork No. 1—J. M. Broyles.
Friendship—W. S. Fleming.
Hale—S. O. Jackson.
Honea Path—C. E. Harper.
Chiquola Mill—J. R. Johnson.
Hunters Spring—T. H. Burriss.
Iva—W. P. Cook.
Long Branch—W. H. Canfield.
Pendleton—Samuel McCarry.
Piedmont—Geo. M. Reid.
Piercetown—C. L. Guyton.
Orr Mills—W. P. Snelgrove.
Sandy Springs—J. D. McElroy.
Starr—J. J. Smith.
Toney Creek—J. M. Holliday.
Townville—J. P. Ledbetter.
Williamston—Thos. J. Martin.
Williamston Mill—W. M. Sheard.
White Plains—J. D. Spearman.

It was noted that there were 19 clubs without representation but shortly after the roll call several other committees reported.

The election of a secretary was then taken up and Leon L. Rice was unanimously chosen for this position. Mr. Rice was also selected treasurer.

The next question brought before the meeting was that of an enrolling committee. It was decided that the enrolling committee shall consist of the president, the secretary and the executive committee of the various clubs, but the executive committee does not necessarily have to act as he may appoint some one to do this in his stead if he desires. The secretary must be a member.

The executive committees were all asked yesterday to furnish the names of their enrolling committee to the secretary and the chairman announced that he would have these published in the county newspapers.

The towns of Williamston, Belton, Honea Path, etc., came up for discussion, it being provided that in towns and cities of less than 10,000 population, where there is more than one club a boundary line shall be determined upon. It was agreed that the president and the executive committee set this line for the various towns.

A committee consisting of Leon L. Rice, W. P. Snelgrove and Henry Cely was appointed for the purpose of fixing the campaign assessments for the coming election. This committee reported as follows:

House of Representatives and Senate—$15.
Auditor—$20.
Supervisor $15.
County Commissioners—$5.
Treasurer $25.
Superintendent of Education—$20.
Coroner—$10.
Probate Judge—$20.

A committee consisting of Dr. Tripp, J. D. McElroy, J. M. Broyles, C. E. Harper and S. O. Jackson was appointed to arrange the campaign itinerary and it reported as follows:

Honea Path Mill, August 8, 2 p. m.
Iva, August 11, 10 a. m.
Sandy Springs, August 13, 10 a. m.
Piercetown, August 14, 10 a. m.
Pelzer, August 15, 2 p. m.
Three and Twenty, August 18, 10 a. m.
Piedmont, August 19, 7 p. m.
Williamston Park, August 20, 10 a. m.
Williamston Mill, August 20, 7 p. m.
Orr, August 21, 7 p. m.
Anderson Court House, August 22, 10 a. m.

Some discussion was heard over these dates, some of them not meeting with the approval of the committee but when a separate vote was taken on the various speaking places it resulted in the committee's recommendation being confirmed.

Application for permission to organize new clubs in North Anderson and at Frankville were heard and un-

INTERESTING BUDGET OF NEWS AND NOTES FROM BUSY BELTON

From Last Friday's Belton Journal

M. F. Cothran and son, C. L., of Toney Creek were among those in Belton Saturday.

D. M. Milford, a well-to-do farmer of the Shirley Store section was in Belton shopping Saturday.

Mrs. Alice B. Latimer was a business visitor to Greenville Tuesday.

Mrs. L. M. Heard, Martin, Jr., and Latimer are spending this week with Mrs. Alice B. Latimer.

Mrs. Joe Kay is visiting relatives in Wallhalla.

Mr. R. Rice of Anderson visited his father, Mr. Joel T. Rice, Sunday.

J. M. Holliday of Belton R4, was a business visitor to our town Saturday.

R. H. Holliday and R. D. Hawkins of Toney Creek were in town Saturday. They paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

R. D. Cothran and J. N. Cothran of the Toney Creek section were among those who called to see us while in town Saturday.

W. A. Shippson of Belton R3, who is a merchant and farmer, was a caller at our office Saturday. Mr. Shippson likes the Journal and says he will do all he can for us in his community. Thanks.

J. L. Stone a popular resident of Belton R4, was among those who called at the Journal office Saturday. He was accompanied by Little Raymond. Sweet.

E. B. Griffin of Belton left this week for Anderson where he will be busily engaged in the erection of a residence.

J. P. Cox, Jr., of Belton R4, may be mentioned among those in town Saturday.

C. G. Davis a thrifty farmer of Honea Path R6, was a business visitor to Belton Saturday.

C. Hanner, who resides on Belton R1, was also here Saturday shopping.

C. E. Hanner a progressive citizen of Belton R4, was among those who had business here Saturday.

T. E. Broyles a subscriber to the Belton Journal who is well pleased with the paper, was in Belton Saturday on business.

P. S. Burton a citizen of Anderson county, Belton R5, was here Saturday shopping.

Cal Geans of Starr, R4, was in Belton was a business visitor to our city Saturday.

F. E. Brooks a live farmer who resides near Belton was a business visitor to our city Saturday.

H. G. Smith a prosperous citizen of Belton R3, was among those who had business in our town Saturday.

Miss Mary Sutherland, of the Shady Grove section, may be mentioned among those in town Wednesday shopping.

J. M. Gambrell, of the Big Creek section, was in Belton Wednesday, the guest of his son, R. J. Gambrell.

Wm. Mattison, of Honea Path, was among those in Belton on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Washington of Belton spent Sunday in Laurens county with relatives.

J. N. Bryant, a prosperous farmer of Hodder was among those in town Monday on business.

Mrs. T. E. Link of Anderson, who has been spending some time in town, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gaines, returned to her home Monday.

L. P. Chapman and R. E. Chapman both of Greenville county were in town Saturday shopping. These gentlemen are anxious to see Belton continue to go forward.

W. L. Sutherland, a citizen who loves the town of Belton and a resident of Belton R4, was a visitor to Belton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ivetser residents of Belton R2, were among those who spent Saturday very pleasantly in Belton among their many friends.

Clyde Murdock, C. C. Tyler and E. H. Brock all of the first Creek section residents of Iva R4, were among those who called to see us in Belton Saturday.

Prue and Wyatt Wilson two bright young boys of the Shirley store section were among those who had business in Belton Tuesday.

J. B. Brooks of Belton R1, was in town Saturday shopping.

T. N. Strickland a resident of Belton R4, was a visitor to our town Saturday.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops

All Anderson county farmers will be very much interested in figures secured from a bulletin, sent by the department of agriculture of the United States government and received here yesterday.

Last July the bureau estimated that 35,622,000 acres had been planted in cotton. The final figures for the year show that 37,548,000 acres were harvested.

The average yield per acre of cotton for 1913 was 182 pounds. The average yield in 1912 was 190.9 pounds, in 1911, 207.7 pounds; in 1910 170.7; in 1909 154.3 pounds.

There were 2,789,000 acres planted in cotton in South Carolina and 2,790,000 acres were harvested.

According to the bulletin, South Carolina leads the larger cotton states in the south in average production per acre with 235 pounds. Some of the average yields per acre are: North Carolina, 237; Virginia, 240; Georgia, 208; Louisiana, 170; Texas, 150; and Oklahoma, 152.

Anderson Farmers Will Be Interested in Learning What Government Thinks of the Crops